RECORDS DISAPPEARANCE, ANTI-COMMUNIST LEAFLETS
SPUR HUNGARIAN SECRET POLICE ACTIVITY

REPARATIONS RECORDS DISAPPEAR -- Innsbruck, Unio Press Service, 3 Dec 52

The documents constituting the record of reparations shipments for August and September 1952 have disappeared from the Hungarian Ministry of Metallurgy and Machine Industry. On discovery of the loss, the ministry was blocked off by the police, and no officials were permitted to leave the ministry for several days.

Since police investigations failed to reveal any clues, the AVH (Allam Vedelmi Hatosag, State Security Authority) arrested all officials who had anything to do with the missing documents.

No reference to the affair appeared in the daily press.

SUSPECT AIRLINE OF DISSEMINATING RESISTANCE LEAFLETS -- Innsbruck, Unio Press Service, 19 Nov 52

During the last days of October, a large part of western Hungary was flooded with propaganda leaflets urging resistance to Communism, calling for sabotage, and assuring the populace of its eventual liberation.

Although many people were arrested for having such a leaflet in their possession or talking about it, the investigations have remained inconclusive.

Suspicion is centering on the MASZOVLET (Magyar-Soviet Legiforgalmi Tarsasag, Hungarian-Soviet Air Traffic Company), because most of the leaflets were found along its runs between Budapest - Gyor, Budapest - Szombathely, and Budapest - Pecs.
